From the Pastor

Olga Brambila Gonzales is our Pastoral Intern for this year, and she is our Special Speaker for today. Olga just recently graduated from Northwest University, one of our A/G schools located in Seattle, Washington, and she is also completing her assignment as one of the students in the Pathway program based out of Trinity Life Center in Sacramento, CA. Pathway has placed over 70 students into the full-time ministry since the program's inception, led by our former District Youth Director and current pastor of TLC Sacramento, Abe Daniels.

Luis Gonzales is Olga's brave husband, and I say brave for many reasons. First of all, he is secure enough in his manhood to encourage his wife to follow her dreams of becoming a Pastor, even though she currently has a tremendous job as an Administrator in a High End Hotel Chain that has properties all around the world. Also, Spanish is Luis' native tongue, yet he left the comforts of his Spanish -speaking Assembly to come and join us so that Olga could pursue her dream. Imagine sitting every Sunday in a church where the spoken language is the 2nd language you desire to speak. Luis is also one of the kindest men I have ever met. He is humble and gentle, and he reminds me of Jesus. Just a quick plug, he runs his own Construction Business, but isn't afraid to tackle some of those projects you haven't yet gotten to at home.

Thank you, Trinity Family, for opening your arms to Luis and Olga on this journey the Lord has them on. Let's also remember to keep them and their entire family in prayer, as Olga is only a month passed the untimely death of her father.

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
