

From the Pastor

Our series through 1 & 2 Kings brings us today to the supernatural attribute of God called kindness. There is a tendency to minimize the kindness of God. His kindness ranks right up there with His mercy and His grace.

God's kindness shows up the most in His longsuffering and goodness to those who are rejecting Him. My current Hebrew professor and research consultant, Larry Wilson, articulates it so incredibly with the following statement: "The kindness of God is not the smiling ticket taker at the movie theater. It is the man who covers the stranger with his own body when bullets begin to fly."

When everyone was running for their lives at the Route 91 Concert last Sunday night, as we all would have, our tremendous first responders here in Las Vegas actually ran towards the shots being fired to rescue those in harm's way. Those who were on duty that night for crowd control actually stood up to make themselves clearer targets while telling everyone else to get down.

Let's take a deeper look at the kindness of God.

Blessings,

Randy & Pam

SERMON NOTES

2 KINGS 5: 1—27 (NLT)

We tend to _____ the kindness of God.

Is He just some smiling, genial Old Man?

Let's elevate kindness to the supernatural _____ of God that it truly is.

Kindness is not being nice, being pleasant, caring or fun to be around.

It is not being nice to someone who is being nice to you.

God's kindness ranks right up there with His _____ and _____.

God's kindness is _____ and _____ to those who are rejecting him.

"The kindness of God is not the smiling ticket taker at the movie theater. It is the man who covers the stranger with his own body when bullets begin to fly." Larry Wilson

The purpose for God's kindness is to lead us to _____.

The early church elevated kindness to a divine name for Christ.

Kindness, like meekness, is not _____. It is a fruit that only the Holy Spirit can produce.

Kindness is the kidnapped girl telling Naaman his leprosy could be healed.

Only thru the kindness of God could we _____ our captors and be kind to someone who killed our family.

The kindness of God is showing Naaman that his _____ as leprosy in his soul.

If you swallow your pride and dip in the Jordan (receive Christ) you will be healed.
