

From the Pastor

We met a man in Israel by the name of Moshe Avraham Kempinski. In a book called Ruth: Naomi's Story, he writes, "When being asked to do something, human beings usually attempt to understand what and why. Angels, when facing a Divine commandment, simply do. That is the secret of the angels as stated by the people at the foot of Mt. Sinai...only when we begin with the humble actions of obedience, and taste the sublime depths of contemplation, can we enter into the act of betrothal..."

And by betrothal he means intimate relationship with the Divine Presence. I love serving the God who cannot even begin to be humanly comprehended no matter how deeply one contemplates. But the more we walk in obedience, and the deeper we meditate and contemplate, the more His heart is revealed to us. I'm more than amazed that this Eternal God chose to reveal Himself to us through His Son. Jesus brought Him out from behind the veil of invisibility. And Micah refers to Jesus as 'The Ancient of Days.' How I relish the thought of getting to know Him as the days roll on.

Something to think about,

Randy & Pam

P.S. Please welcome our special Missionary guest with us today, Joy Krajcek. Joy will be ministering in the nation of France, and we have the privilege of joining in with others to send her. Blessings!

SERMON NOTES

Micah 5: 2 - 9 (NLT)

<sup>2</sup> But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, are only a small village among all the people of Judah. Yet a ruler of Israel, whose origins are in the distant past, will come from you on my behalf.

<sup>3</sup> The people of Israel will be abandoned to their enemies until the woman in labor gives birth. Then at last his fellow countrymen will return from exile to their own land.

<sup>4</sup> And he will stand to lead his flock with the LORD's strength, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. Then his people will live there undisturbed, for he will be highly honored around the world.

<sup>5</sup> And he will be the source of peace. When the Assyrians invade our land and break through our defenses, we will appoint seven rulers to watch over us, eight princes to lead us.

<sup>6</sup> They will rule Assyria with drawn swords and enter the gates of the land of Nimrod. He will rescue us from the Assyrians when they pour over the borders to invade our land.

<sup>7</sup> Then the remnant left in Israel<sup>[b]</sup> will take their place among the nations. They will be like dew sent by the LORD or like rain falling on the grass, which no one can hold back and no one can restrain.

<sup>8</sup> The remnant left in Israel will take their place among the nations. They will be like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a strong young lion among flocks of sheep and goats, pouncing and tearing as they go with no rescuer in sight.

<sup>9</sup> The people of Israel will stand up to their foes, and all their enemies will be wiped out.
