

From the Pastor

In Israel, we crested the top of the Mount of Olives where the bus let us off to walk down the steep slope to Gethsemane. It was at this very juncture where the little one-year old baby spotless lambs were sold on the Sunday before Easter.

These lambs were kept in the Jewish homes for 4 days before being slaughtered at the door so that their blood could be spread over the doorposts of each home (in the shape of a Cross!).

Even though throngs of people, upwards of about 2 or 3 million, were lining the streets, spreading out their cloaks on the ground like a red carpet for Jesus to enter Jerusalem; I don't think His mind was on His Kingship and what we call the Triumphal Entry as much as He was focused on these baby lambs; because He knew He was presenting Himself that day to be chosen as THE Sacrificial Lamb of God.

Have you made the choice? If not, then today is the day! Invite Jesus to be your Messiah, because when He shed His sinless blood, He made it possible for our sins to be forgiven.

Blessings,

Randy & Pam

SERMON NOTES

Mark 11:1-11 (NLT)

Jesus' Triumphant Entry

¹As Jesus and his disciples approached Jerusalem, they came to the towns of Bethphage and Bethany on the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent two of them on ahead.

²"Go into that village over there," he told them. "As soon as you enter it, you will see a young donkey tied there that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. ³If anyone asks, 'What are you doing?' just say, 'The Lord needs it and will return it soon.'"

⁴The two disciples left and found the colt standing in the street, tied outside the front door. ⁵As they were untying it, some bystanders demanded, "What are you doing, untying that colt?" ⁶They said what Jesus had told them to say, and they were permitted to take it.

⁷Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their garments over it, and he sat on it.

⁸Many in the crowd spread their garments on the road ahead of him, and others spread leafy branches they had cut in the fields.

⁹Jesus was in the center of the procession, and the people all around him were shouting,

"Praise God!

Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!

¹⁰Blessings on the coming Kingdom of our ancestor David!

Praise God in highest heaven!"

¹¹So Jesus came to Jerusalem and went into the Temple. After looking around carefully at everything, he left because it was late in the afternoon. Then he returned to Bethany with the twelve disciples.
