

From the Pastor

This past Wednesday evening, Dorian Travers started us out in our Summer School of the Bible. What rich insights! Dorian is legally blind, but as a result he has placed much of the Bible to memory. I learned something about being thankful that I had not previously known or ever heard. May I invite you to rethink your Wednesday evening schedule and join us?.

Pam and I just returned late last evening from Donnie Moore's funeral. That man had more fruit come out of his ministry than anyone I've ever known. If each individual influenced by Donnie to be in the ministry had a chance to speak, the Memorial Service would have been 10 hours long.

I mention these 2 men because they both minister under a powerful anointing. Want to know something really cool? The Holy Spirit also has a powerful anointing for you! There is something He has for you to do that no one else has been called to accomplish. Are you fulfilling that calling? It might be as a plumber, banker, homemaker, CEO, or beautician, but it's your anointing from Him because he has taken up residence inside of you. He honestly has a unique anointing for each and everyone of us.

Find your calling. Walk in your anointing. Ask Him what He has for you. The greatest blessings await His answer to that question!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam

SERMON NOTES

1 John 2:18-29 (New Living Translation)

Warning about Antichrists

¹⁸Dear children, the last hour is here. You have heard that the Antichrist is coming, and already many such antichrists have appeared. From this we know that the last hour has come. ¹⁹These people left our churches, but they never really belonged with us; otherwise they would have stayed with us. When they left, it proved that they did not belong with us.

²⁰But you are not like that, for the Holy One has given you his Spirit, and all of you know the truth. ²¹So I am writing to you not because you don't know the truth but because you know the difference between truth and lies. ²²And who is a liar? Anyone who says that Jesus is not the Christ. Anyone who denies the Father and the Son is an antichrist. ²³Anyone who denies the Son doesn't have the Father, either. But anyone who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

²⁴So you must remain faithful to what you have been taught from the beginning. If you do, you will remain in fellowship with the Son and with the Father. ²⁵And in this fellowship we enjoy the eternal life he promised us.

²⁶I am writing these things to warn you about those who want to lead you astray. ²⁷But you have received the Holy Spirit, and he lives within you, so you don't need anyone to teach you what is true. For the Spirit teaches you everything you need to know, and what he teaches is true—it is not a lie. So just as he has taught you, remain in fellowship with Christ.

Living as Children of God

²⁸And now, dear children, remain in fellowship with Christ so that when he returns, you will be full of courage and not shrink back from him in shame.

²⁹Since we know that Christ is righteous, we also know that all who do what is right are God's children.
