

From the Pastor

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY! What a great day, I have always loved this day. My Dad, Bracy I. Greer, had such a huge influence in my life. I can't wait to see him again. Thanks to all the Dads who have taken the charge to lead your family, and take them, not just send them to church. You have led by example, and you have done it well. Strong churches strengthen the very fabric of society, and you men have a lot to do with that.

Pam and I are thrilled to have our middle daughter, Ashley Silverii, here with us as our special guest speaker today. I have often told people what a joy it is to have the privilege of preaching God's Word, but it's like ten times better to sit and hear one of your kids speak! I have that honor and privilege today.

Ashley is currently serving alongside her husband, Dr. Sean Silverii, who is the Pastor of Students and Growth at the great Hope Church in Albany, Oregon. She is the Mommy of two little boys, Mykah who is 3 and my namesake, Kainen Ray, who is 5 months old. She runs her own business enterprise with the Juiceplus Company, and of course, to round this out, I need to tell you a little story:

Ashley and the boys have been with us over a week now at the house, and watching Ashley chase her 3 year-old around brings me the greatest joy. He is so full of energy, he is strong-willed, he is going to be a world changer when all that energy is channeled into the direction of advancing the Kingdom of God. And that was Ashley just 30 years ago! She has now taken teams of people on trips around the world to share the love of Christ. If you are raising a strong-willed child, take hope today as you listen to ours. "We love you, Ashley. You make us sanctified proud!"

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
