

From the Pastor

One of the things I've treasured the most throughout the years when it comes to Christmas time is being able to see its wonder through the eyes of a child. I love their innocence, the way they look at all the lights and of course the presents under the tree. I even love watching my grandkids squirm while I read the Scriptures before we open the gifts.

But what is priceless every year is the Children's Christmas production! Your children are always so delightful, and one of them will always give us a memorable moment. For instance, I still remember our 'Bethlehem star' getting itchy under his pointy costume last year. So he pulls the top point off his head and begins to itch away, right in the middle of the performance!

I pray we will all capture the beauty, the wonder, the full essence of what all the fuss is about. God became one of us! Let's all approach that with childlike innocence.

Blessings,

Randy & Pam

SERMON NOTES

Psalm 23 (NLT)

A psalm of David.

¹The LORD is my shepherd;
I have all that I need.

²He lets me rest in green meadows;
he leads me beside peaceful streams.

³He renews my strength.
He guides me along right paths,
bringing honor to his name.

⁴Even when I walk
through the dark valley of death,
I will not be afraid,

for you are close beside me.
Your rod and your staff
protect and comfort me.

⁵You prepare a feast for me
in the presence of my enemies.
You honor me by anointing my head with oil.
My cup overflows with blessings.

⁶Surely your goodness and unfailing love will pursue me
all the days of my life,
and I will live in the house of the LORD forever.
