

From the Pastor

I love Mike Yaconelli's title of the book he wrote in 2015: Messy Spirituality: God's Annoying Love for Imperfect People. In it, he writes, "Spirituality is not a formula; it is not a test. It is a relationship. Spirituality is not about competency; it is about intimacy. Spirituality is not about perfection; it is about connection...we are now in the mess of our lives. Accepting the reality of our broken, flawed lives is the beginning of our spirituality...Spirituality is not about being fixed; it is about God being present in the mess of our unfixeness."

So, if you are still trying to figure it all out, and you feel like there is still some unfinished business, then you are absolutely in the right place. Knowing that you are broken in one way or another is where all of our journeys begin. Sometimes we forget just how broken we once were. I think one of the real keys to all of our lives is remembering our brokenness, and daily humbling ourselves to rely on Jesus just like we did when we started this journey with Him.

Because Mike Y. is right, it isn't really about finally figuring it all out and having it all together. It's about knowing I don't have it together, I'm still in the messiness of not judging, not blaming, not comparing, learning to truly forgive, and learning how to love the unlovely the way Jesus loves them. Ouch!

I still have a lot of work to do, how about you?

Blessings,

Randy & Pam

SERMON NOTES

2 Samuel 2:1-7 (NLT)

David Anointed King of Judah

2 After this, David asked the LORD, "Should I move back to one of the towns of Judah?"

"Yes," the LORD replied.

Then David asked, "Which town should I go to?"

"To Hebron," the LORD answered.

² David's two wives were Ahinoam from Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal from Carmel. So David and his wives ³and his men and their families all moved to Judah, and they settled in the villages near Hebron.⁴ Then the men of Judah came to David and anointed him king over the people of Judah.

When David heard that the men of Jabesh-gilead had buried Saul, ⁵ he sent them this message: "May the LORD bless you for being so loyal to your master Saul and giving him a decent burial. ⁶ May the LORD be loyal to you in return and reward you with his unfailing love! And I, too, will reward you for what you have done. ⁷ Now that Saul is dead, I ask you to be my strong and loyal subjects like the people of Judah, who have anointed me as their new king."

2 Samuel 2:11 (NLT)

¹¹ David made Hebron his capital, and he ruled as king of Judah for seven and a half years.
