From the Pastor

One of the greatest passages in the Bible is our text for today, Philippians Chapter 4. There is so much in here we could spend a lot of time really diving in.

One word I want us to grasp is the nearly untranslatable Greek word 'Epieikeia.' It has been translated into English in v5 as 'moderation, considerate, patient, soft, modest, gentle, having a forbearing spirit, magnanimity, meeting a man halfway, and something better than justice,' among others.

It's spoken about the man who knows when NOT to apply the letter of the law. It's one of the greatest qualities we could ever develop to mark us as a true Christian. It's how Jesus dealt with the woman caught in adultery. It's the one character trait that allows us to handle our inevitable conflicts with each other through grace and humility.

Man, I want this trait to be fully matured and developed in my life. I've been working on it, but give me a break, I'm only 62 and won't be 63 until next week!

Growing slowly but surely,

Randy
(Pam's had this trait since we met when we were 17!)
