From the Pastor

Even though I know most of you are weary of hearing about my favorite sports teams, and I promise to talk about them less and less, there is something actually better than going to the game. And that is, at my age, sitting in my easy chair with my favorite food and beverage, and watching the game in the comfort of my own home.

The Apostle Peter tells us in the 1st chapter of his second book that he was one of the very few eyewitnesses that actually saw the Transfiguration of Jesus Christ up on that mountaintop that day. But then he goes on to tell us that we all have something better than actually being there along with him.

And think about it...when he wrote these words, the entire Bible as we know it was yet to be formed. But he very prophetically lets us know that holding the Word of God in our hands is even better than what he experienced because the Holy Spirit is ever present to show us just exactly who Jesus is.

We are eyewitnesses to the life and times of Jesus Christ. This Book we all hold dear is not only infallible, but it is also inerrant and inviolable (so sacred that it must not be injured or violated).

Remember, these fishermen weren't sharp enough to begin a worldwide movement that is still gaining momentum 21 Centuries later. People don't protect a lie when their own neck is on the line and they all died for what they believed and wrote about. The enemies of Jesus have never been able to refute these eyewitness accounts about the life and testimony of Jesus!

He's real, this Book is alive, and all of us are witnesses to the Truth that God's Word testifies about Jesus from Genesis to Revelation.

I'm so grateful to be a Christian!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
