From the Pastor

Although the idea of a Ninja has now spread to kitchen knives and turtles, the original Ninjas in Medieval Japan were stealthy spies and assassins who would infiltrate to hear their enemy's conversations by learning several occupations and languages. They would blend in and become a part of their enemy's trusted circles, and then from that vantage point reek havoc.

This was exactly what was happening in 1st Century Asia Minor, in the churches that both Peter and Jude were writing to in order to warn them about the Ninja Teachers, or more accurately, the Ninja false teachers.

The equivalence of these atrocities in our day would be someone showing up in our church claiming to be a special prophet or teacher from God, yet showing up at church drunk and trying to entice some of our women into improper acts of immorality.

Peter and Jude both indicate that there is a special place in hell (strict judgment) for these false teachers. This is a heavy message today that I would rather avoid, but I believe much can be learned from heeding the warnings in these difficult passages of Scripture. Please study along with me as we learn how to avoid the pitfalls of false teachings in our culture today.

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
