Deuteronomy 5:6-22 (NLT)

⁶ “I am the LORD your God, who rescued you from the land of Egypt, the place of your slavery.

⁷ “You must not have any other god but me.

⁸ “You must not make for yourself an idol of any kind, or an image of anything in the heavens or on the earth or in the sea. ⁹ You must not bow down to them or worship them, for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God who will not tolerate your affection for any other gods. I lay the sins of the parents upon their children; the entire family is affected—even children in the third and fourth generations of those who reject me. ¹⁰ But I lavish unfailing love for a thousand generations on those who love me and obey my commands.

¹¹ “You must not misuse the name of the LORD your God. The LORD will not let you go unpunished if you misuse his name.

¹² “Observe the Sabbath day by keeping it holy, as the LORD your God has commanded you. ¹³ You have six days each week for your ordinary work, ¹⁴ but the seventh day is a Sabbath day of rest dedicated to the LORD your God. On that day no one in your household may do any work. This includes you, your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, your oxen and donkeys and other livestock, and any foreigners living among you. All your male and female servants must rest as you do. ¹⁵ Remember that you were once slaves in Egypt, but the LORD your God brought you out with his strong hand and powerful arm. That is why the LORD your God has commanded you to rest on the Sabbath day.

¹⁶ “Honor your father and mother, as the LORD your God commanded you. Then you will live a long, full life in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

¹⁷ “You must not murder.

¹⁸ “You must not commit adultery.

¹⁹ “You must not steal.

²⁰ “You must not testify falsely against your neighbor.

²¹ “You must not covet your neighbor’s wife. You must not covet your neighbor’s house or land, male or female servant, ox or donkey, or anything else that belongs to your neighbor.

²² “The LORD spoke these words to all of you assembled there at the foot of the mountain. He spoke with a loud voice from the heart of the fire, surrounded by clouds and deep darkness. This was all he said at that time, and he wrote his words on two stone tablets and gave them to me.

Matthew 22:37-40 (NLT)

³⁷ Jesus replied, “You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind.’ ³⁸ This is the first and greatest commandment. ³⁹ A second is equally important: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ ⁴⁰ The entire law and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments.”

These next 6
Commands get tested
daily and most sharply
when we are around family and friends.

Kabed, Hebrew for Honor = WEIGHTY, HEAVY, also means Glory It means significant, important.

5- Give significant importance and glory to the primary authorities in your life.

The greatest slap in the face to life itself is to watch someone be given an undeserved weighty or heavy honor. Now that's hypocrisy

Jesus radicalizes, amplifies, and internalizes
the rest of these Commands.

Matthew 5:22 (NLT)

²² But I say, if you are even angry with someone, you are subject to judgment! If you call someone an idiot, you are in danger of being brought before the court. And if you curse someone, you are in danger of the fires of hell.

Teaching about Adultery

²⁷ “You have heard the commandment that says, ‘You must not commit adultery.’ ²⁸ But I say, anyone who even looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

Lust and pornography are sins that are killing the life flow of the men
in our country.

8- We all carry the responsibility to protect our neighbor's property just the way we all want ours protected.

9- Here's that word empty or vain again. Not only DO NOT LIE, but don't even give misleading or incorrect information.

10- Covet = to have an inordinate 'desire' for something that one does not possess.
