

From the Pastor

Isn't it interesting how the connotation of words change over the course of history? Take the word 'peculiar.' Back in 1611, when the King James Version was printed, the word meant "a very prized possession." However, today it means odd or strange.

I still like thinking that I am one of God's peculiar people, His priceless treasure. He certainly paid an extremely high price for me - the death of His Son, through the shedding of His blood as He hung on the Cross and died for our sins. And He did that because He has chosen to have an incredibly deep love for me, and you, His Church and first of all, Israel.

It's wonderful and very relaxing to sit back and think about being His priceless treasure. I wish I was worthy of it, I wish there was some special quality inside me that made this happen. However, He did it, not because of anything tremendously special in us, but because He is so incredibly full of love and grace.

Ok, repeat after me..."I am one of God's peculiar people. I am His priceless treasure. He loves me with a deep and abiding love, one that will never stop and never fade away. I am going to live in His Presence forever!" Say it 50 times this week, until you begin to really believe it because every word is true!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
