

From the Pastor

Shortly after 2:42 Club finished this past Wednesday, Global Prayer Network made the decision to stay in the country since the borders were being tightened up due to the pandemic gripping our world.

So after a long night of scrambling to unreserve our flights, car rental and hotel rooms, Pam and I decided to take a few vacation days and drive to Phoenix to see our oldest daughter and her kids.

We know you are in good hands today with our incredible Pastoral and Support Staff, not to mention the Sages, the very wise men and women who have been in ministry longer than we have that the Lord has sent our way recently.

I'm always amazed at how the Lord processes His Word through Pastor Vic's lens. So many of you have told me how much you enjoy hearing him speak, and today will be no exception!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
