

From the Pastor

“If I studied Greek for 50 years, I still couldn’t properly translate what John was saying when he stated in John 19:25 that he and Mary, the Mother of Jesus, her sister Salome, Mary wife of Clopas and Mary Magdalene came and stood ‘near the Cross.’” That’s what Greek teaching Professor Wilson said when trying to translate today’s text from Greek to English. Perhaps in Heaven we will get to explore things like that. We stand on hallowed ground in today’s church service. Please remove your shoes. The way this is written, all of us are supposed to constantly and continually join John and these 4 women at the foot of the Cross.

Every person on earth will eventually stand, looking at the Cross, and decide if they belong in the group of soldiers who mocked and didn’t believe, or John and Mary’s group of silent and reverent followers who knew a depth of love that few will ever know or experience. That is the invitation held out to all of us today. Come ‘near the Cross’ on a regular basis, until you weep deeply as you begin to discern ALL that Jesus endured as He hung on that tree.

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
