

From the Pastor

Today we are focusing on our young adults here at Trinity. The ministry is appropriately called 'Relentless,' led by Pastor Oretta Andrews. Grace Njoroge joins Oretta in leading these warriors through a summer of excellence in their pursuit of God, and today is my day to speak into their lives.

The main thing I want them (and all of us) to know is that the decisions we make now will affect our future generations to come. EVERYTHING WE SAY AND DO COUNTS!

I think most people who read the Biblical account of the lives of the early patriarchs feel sorry for Leah, who was given in marriage to Jacob by trickery since he had just worked 7 years for the privilege to marry her younger sister, the beautiful Rachel.

Every young man would prefer Rachel over Leah, just as every young lady would rather be Rachel than Leah. But, as usual, the curve ball thrown to us in the Scriptures is that Leah was by far the one who makes the highest impact, and because of her deep inner beauty and character, becomes the one who wins Jacob's heart.

Just wait until you see how incredible her influence has been, even on every one of our lives here today. Let's learn to make wise choices and mature decisions. Let's learn to live like Leah!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
