

From the Pastor

Complacent, lethargic, mundane, lukewarm, mediocre. All adjectives that could be describing our walk with the Lord. I'm not exactly sure that this was the case with Timothy, or why these words from Paul were written. Contextually, it would seem that more than anything else, Timothy was shy. He had some incredible gifts that the Holy Spirit gave him, but he was reticent to utilize them.

I think sometimes we all tend to be a little shy. We don't want to impose our beliefs on someone else, we don't want to be a bother, the list goes on and on. But I also think that the adjectives I began this article with are more prevalent in our culture than any of us would care to admit.

We are so saturated with things designed to entertain or enlighten, yet they ultimately just get in our way from giving our relationship with Jesus an all out pursuit. Guilty, guilty, guilty. That's why it is vital that each one of us listen to Paul's incredible admonition, "Fan into flames the spiritual gifts God gave you when I laid my hands on you." 2 Timothy 1:6

So whaddya say? Wouldn't right now, today, be a great time to talk this over with Jesus? All He's waiting for is for us to let Him know that this is our desire. "Breath of God, blow on the embers in my soul so that they will once again flame the fire of Your gifts to be strong in my life so that I might bring You honor and glory." Amen!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
