

From the Pastor

First of all, I received correspondence from our Northern California/Nevada District Resource Center that our Superintendent and his wife, Bret and Valerie Allen, would be attending our service this morning. Please give them a huge TLC welcome. They oversee 450 churches, and chose to attend our church today. I told his Assistant that if he's coming, then he's preaching! She said no, he simply wanted us to know he was coming to enjoy our service today.

Ever since I heard of this news, I have felt honored and truly humbled (not to mention scared spitless!)...because out of all the places they could be today, they chose to be with us. So...either I'm the most blessed Pastor in the District today or I'm more in trouble than I ever dreamed was possible. I'll let you know next week. 😊

As we wrap up our studies about being a solid Christian Warrior, Paul has some incredible advice for us this morning. And how timely! He said we would one day encounter people all over the land exhibiting very poor qualities of character, and aren't we seeing that everywhere we look? He also gives us clear instructions on how not to become a part of that problem, but to be the solution.

We do that by constantly looking to God's infallible and inerrant Word that was so much more than inspired - it was and is to this day "the product of God's outbreathing." 2 Timothy 3:16 (as translated from the original language).

Let's take a strong look into that...

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
