

From the Pastor

Pam has been telling me about these weighted blankets. She says she has been told that they make you feel 'surrounded' and safe. That's exactly how each of us are supposed to feel since we have been given such a great gift of Salvation. NO MATTER WHAT!

Habakkuk prophesied in a day when Israel was about to be taken into captivity. He was a contemporary of Jeremiah. You think crazy stuff is going on in our country, you should have been in Israel during this time. Habakkuk is really upset with God about what was happening. Have you ever been upset with God? Do you feel comfortable fussing at the Lord, and telling Him exactly how you feel?

There are several takeaways for us in today's text. Let me just mention two in this blog. First of all, God is way bigger than we think He is, and He can take it when we feel angry and want to vent towards Him. Go ahead, tell Him how you feel!

Secondly, we, His people, are totally and completely secure and safe and - just like the mountains surround Jerusalem, we are surrounded by and saturated with...the Presence of the Living God. There's a lot more we need to look into together.

We love you,

Randy & Pam

P.S. Friends, our nation is so divided right now. Churches and families are also being divided. Please don't let that happen. "Thank you Jesus, for surrounding us with Your love, and bathing us in that marvelous gift of Salvation! Amen."
