

From the Pastor

Could you just imagine being God, and putting up with all of the fallible humanity we have on this planet? I wonder how many times He has lamented making us, we are so prone to making a mess of things. Thank God for the rainbow, which signifies His Promise not to ever destroy mankind again on a worldwide scale.

In Habakkuk 2, Yahweh has the prophet write about 5 woes, or 5 sins that just drive God to say ‘Oy Vey!’ Oy is the Hebrew way of saying ‘woe,’ and Vey was added later from Yiddish and it means the same thing, so it’s like a double whammy of heartache and pain or just eye rolling wonderment that brings a person to say, ‘Oy Vey!’

Listen, life is tough and we all make mistakes and God is upset with His people back in Habakkuk’s day, but right in the middle of all these woes is a Scripture that gives all of us so much hope, and it tells us that one day soon the knowledge of the Lord will fill the entire earth like the water covers the sea! It’s like God is reminding all of us that, no matter how difficult times get, there is always a silver lining to every cloud and a new day coming to those who remain faithful.

What a joy to have Nate & Marie Arzouni home from the Mission Field today to give us a report of their work in some very difficult regions of the world. Please help them feel at home with us here at TLC!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
