

From the Pastor

What is the difference between Belshazzar, Babylon's king, drinking from the gold and silver cups that were taken from God's House in Jerusalem (in Daniel 5), while praising his idols of gold, wood and stone - and America taking the sacred institutions of marriage, family and the sanctity of life, and pouring into those sacred cups the changing of the definition of marriage and the killing of 62 million babies, not to mention now funding other countries to have more and more abortions?

I believe that America is already experiencing the Judgment of God. It's completely designed to bring us as an entire nation, back to serving and worshipping the Living God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. But we are absolutely fooling ourselves if we believe we can, as a nation, continue to grow more and more daring in our sin and somehow avoid God's Judgments. WITHOUT REPENTANCE, GOD'S JUDGMENT WILL CONTINUE. And unfortunately, if we don't repent, I'm afraid we haven't seen anything yet.

Friends, please...let's continue to fast and pray and earnestly believe that God by His Spirit will open the heavens and send us another GREAT AWAKENING in this wonderful country of ours. We need Revival! I like the song that asks, "Lord, send a Revival, and let it begin in me!"

Blessings,
Pastor Randy
