

From the Pastor

Ok, listen up, here's the game plan. The whole world has gone crazy, everyone and everything is on slippery ground, thanks mainly to this awful plague that has hit our world. Also, it seems like we don't know who to believe, we don't know who to trust anymore. And this is all the more reason why we as believers need to find our traction. Today's text from Habakkuk 3 tells us how.

It seems as if there are a lot of Christian people right now, even though we have been given the feet of a deer - well, let's just say it seems like a lot of people have hit the ice. Deer's feet were created by God to handle any surface except for ice. Ice to a deer is like that sin which so easily besets us, and the sooner each of us discover what our ice is, the greater the opportunity we will have to avoid those temptations.

Habakkuk knew that his nation was about to be overrun by the Babylonians, and it was a scary time to be living in Israel. He knew that there was going to be great devastation and loss. But he writes some of the greatest Scriptures in the entire Word of God when he basically says, in such a marvelously poetic strain, that when everything goes wrong in our lives, that's the most important time to be found rejoicing in God our Savior.

It doesn't make any sense at all friends, but when there are no figs and no grapes and no olives and no sheep and no cattle - that's the absolute best time to be found loving and rejoicing and praising Jesus Christ, our Lord!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
