

From the Pastor

The absolute worst type of deception is when it is disguised as truth. It looks like the real deal, it can fool even the strongest proponents of truth, but it's a diabolical and very evil attempt to stop people from reaching what the truth really is.

Paul said that even if an Angel comes preaching another gospel, let him be cursed. It took 1800 years for it to happen, and no doubt that's why the Holy Spirit breathed through the pen of the Apostle Paul to write about it in the 1st Century.

An Angel showed up in America in 1823, and prompted a man to start preaching a different gospel. It wasn't and still isn't the Grace Gospel we all know and love and are staking our lives on. It's a gospel of works. It's a gospel that says men will become gods one day, completely equal with Jesus, and populate entire planets with their offspring.

Those who have been duped by this different gospel message are some of the greatest people on the planet! They are kind, they make great neighbors, and the most devout among them won't even drink caffeine. They are amazing people. And unfortunately, they are amazingly lost.

Every cult preaches another gospel that usually includes working for our salvation, and considering ourselves good enough to merit going to heaven because of those good works. Nothing could be further from the truth. Let's delve into this a little more...

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
