

From the Pastor

Sometimes there's just nothing better than a good old PB & J, with a glass of milk. For today's purpose, PB & J stands for Palm Branches and Jesus!

I have always loved Passion week, and trying to place myself with Jesus during that last week before He changed the trajectory of our lives, the entire world and the Universe - by going to the Cross, dying in our place, becoming sin, and paying the price only He could pay to ransom us back from sin's grasp.

Just like it's portrayed in the Chronicles of Narnia, the devil has a legal claim on our souls because of sin. Only Aslan could save us by giving His life in exchange for ours.

One new idea today in covering this old story of The Triumphal Entry is the role Lazarus played in the event. Jesus had just recently raised him from the dead, declaring Himself as The Resurrection and The Life. The word had spread throughout Jerusalem, and that's how this massive crowd had formed, not only because they wanted to see Lazarus, but mainly to see this Miracle Worker who had power even over death!

This point I am calling BLT...Branches, Lazarus & Triumph! Anybody hungry yet?
