

From the Pastor

I love this Day! For me, it has always been the greatest Day ever. The day that Jesus rose from the dead...He came back to life so that I could live...so that you could live...I'm not talking about existing between all too few moments of really being alive, I'm talking about really living life - right now - and forever! All of this is possible because of what happened on this Glorious Day.

Pam and I love Jorge and Shirley. We were on Staff together back in the 90's. They went on from here to lead Worship and Fine Arts in some of the greatest churches in America. Recently, they were Lead Pastors in Sunnyvale, CA. Now Jorge is mentoring younger men and women who desire to be Worship & Fine Arts Pastors.

Which is really interesting, because today we are introducing our new Pastor over that area, Louie Pleitez. Louie is no stranger to us, he has often filled in when Pastor Dave was away and does a beautiful job. The Lord's timing is impeccable. Long before we knew anything about this transition, we had the Marsals coming.

Be patient...wait on the Lord...in His time, every issue, every need in your life will be supplied. What a faithful God we serve!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
