

From the Pastor

The people in 1st Century Galatia had come into the greatest freedom they had ever known, freedom found in Christ. But after Paul left, Jewish folks from Jerusalem came through and basically convinced them that if they really wanted to be Holy Christ Followers, then they had to keep all the laws and be circumcised.

To the Galatians, this was a way to be a Super Christ Follower. They thought this would put them in better standing with God, not realizing that they were jeopardizing the freedom they already had through God's grace revealed in the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus.

They were essentially being lied to and were falling headlong back into bondage. Keeping the law cannot be the basis for our justification because the Law curses and condemns us. I like the way R.C. Sproul says it in his book entitled Faith Alone:

In justification, "our record does not change, but our guilt does." His concept is that God doesn't ignore our sin when He justifies us, and He knows that until we die we will battle sin and even give in to it on occasion. Yet, if we believe, He will not hold our sin against us eternally and He will bless us like He blessed Abraham.

Every person who ever lived will either receive the blessing of Abraham, or be cursed because of the Law. Abraham's faith is what allowed God to deposit His righteousness into Abraham's heavenly bank account, not his circumcision or his keeping of the Law.

Let's look into this a little deeper. Our very freedom is at stake!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
