

From the Pastor

One day, a very cultured, elderly woman attended our church. When the service was over, she caught me in the Lobby and asked me the following question:

“Pastor, if the President of the United States visited this church today, would you be uncomfortable being dressed like that?” I was wearing my usual jeans with a tucked out shirt, shoes but no socks. God bless this precious lady, dressed to the nines...but she was a legalist.

I felt like the Lord helped me and inspired my answer. I said, “Ma’am, the only way he wouldn’t mind is if he was one of my close friends.” Listen to me please, we are walking through the Book of Galatians. Paul was in an all out war against legalism.

If you love to dress up and wear your best to honor the Lord, I think that’s wonderful, go for it! Just don’t judge those of us who aren’t dressed as snazzy as you are, or you might be a legalist.

In what other ways are we susceptible to being a legalist? Basically, it’s any time the Holy Spirit speaks to you and you feel impressed to stop a certain behavior. Maybe He will outline places He no longer wants you to frequent, or foods He no longer wants you to eat.

Whatever it is, legalism is when you now take the Holy Spirit’s place as you tell others what they should or should not be doing. Remember, some things are ok for you, but not for me, and visa versa. Friends, let’s live in the freedom Jesus gave us when we accepted His free gift of Salvation. The Spirit will convict us when we get out of line.

We don’t do good works to earn our way to Heaven or to be better than someone else. We do good works because we are so incredibly grateful for His indescribable gift!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
