

From the Pastor

“I’ve never met anyone like you.” For those of us who have been following Jesus for quite some time, this is something we should be hearing periodically throughout our earthly sojourn. We will hear it when we exhibit the supernatural aspect of Agape Love called meekness. The NLT has it listed as ‘gentleness,’ but from the original language the word is definitely ‘meekness.’

We will hear it when we respond in a Christlike manner as opposed to reacting like everyone else. I heard it several times after some intense sporting competition. After listening the entire game to my opponent insult me and say whatever he could to “get my goat,” when I responded with a quiet and gentle supernatural strength called meekness, complimenting them on their play instead of exchanging insults, they would say afterwards, “I’ve never met anyone like you.”

When our soft answer turns away someone’s wrath, when we are kind while someone else is being belligerent, that’s when meekness shines the best. This Beatitude, this aspect of the Fruit of the Spirit, was best exhibited from Christ Jesus as He hung on the Cross and cried out, “Father, forgive them...”

This is what we will be exploring in greater depth in this morning’s message. Let’s all pray that very soon we will watch the door to sharing Jesus with someone fly open after we hear them say, “I’ve never met anyone like you.”

“Jesus, we can’t do this in our own strength, it goes against all of our human tendencies, so we ask you to supernatural gift us with Your strength to respond to difficult people the way you did...with meekness.”

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
