

From the Pastor

In today's sermon, the one thought that really intrigues me is what if I had been an adult in the crowd that day when Jesus fed the 5,000? Would I have given Him all 5 of my loaves of bread? I mean, even if I gave Him 4, that's huge, I mean that's 80% of my lunch!

That little 7 or 8 year old boy I don't think even hesitated to give Jesus his entire lunch. His little childlikeness resulted in about 15,000 people, counting the women and children, being fed. He not only had a front row seat for a great miracle, his total commitment was at the heart of what made this miracle possible.

The moral of this story I'm telling you is to throw out the challenge to give Jesus everything. Whatever you place in His Hands, if it's small, He will grow it. If it's worn, He will revive it. If it's broken, He will fix it. If it's weak, He will strengthen it. If it's sick, He will heal it. If it's unclean, He will cleanse it. If it's dead, He will bring it back to life! The key is that you have to give Him everything without holding anything back.

This is almost impossible to do as an adult...so that's why we must become like little children, with a wide-eyed, open-hearted, pure belief that my Father can do anything. He can take my little, and multiply it to be a blessing to the nations. Our Master can be trusted. Give Him your all today.

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
