

From the Pastor

I am never more disgusted with how depraved humanity can become than when I return from the Conference in Alabama. Each year Pastors gather to raise funds in order that we can train new Pastors to lead their churches and small groups in the areas of the world where Revival has broken out. The 3 top areas are China, Cuba, and the Muslim world.

Don't get me wrong, I'm very motivated and enthused to raise these funds as I want us to be involved in the ongoing training of National Pastors. That's why we have an area to give to this incredible endeavor right on our tithing envelope, it's called 'Training National Pastors.'

But my disgust, my lament, my outrage stems from visiting the Civil Rights Memorial Museum, seeing the church that was bombed in 1963 where 4 young ladies were killed, and walking through the park where the children of Birmingham were attacked with vicious dogs and powerful water hoses.

I walked the bridge in Selma where the 600 peaceful protesters knelt down and prayed. Then finally, we visited the Lynching Museum, a memorial to the thousands of young black men who were murdered in public (the perpetrators never brought to justice) simply because of the COLOR OF THEIR SKIN! Are you kidding me?

All of that to say this: in today's text, Jesus goes out of His way to confront what was the greatest prejudice of His day between Jews and Samaritans. He still gives Living Water today, which is absolutely the Answer for all of our societal ills, including systemic racism.

Drink Him in!
