

From the Pastor

The song says that this is “the most wonderful time of the year.” I’m of the persuasion now that every single day is a gift to be treasured, so I’m just happy to be on this side of the dirt, but today is a day I look forward to all year long. There’s just something extremely precious about our children presenting us with a Christmas program.

Remember the time when the microphone stand was slipping while the little boy, tall for his age, kept reciting his line while almost finishing his part on his knees? Or the time the little guy’s head was sticking up out of the Christmas box under the tree, and he somehow figured out a way to tip the box forward, and now he’s stuck staring at the carpet but trying to look around for the rest of the scene?

I hope and pray he wasn’t traumatized by the event and sitting in therapy somewhere today, but even as I’m writing this my eyes are filled with tears of joy just reminiscing about that wonderful day. I also hope and pray that all of us will be able to continue approaching the Christmas Advent season through the wonder and innocence of a small child, filled with joy, laughter, and anticipation. May we never forget that our God, the Creator of the Universe, humbled Himself to become a vulnerable little baby. He became one of us because He knew it was the only way to redeem us from our sins.

What a Mighty God we serve!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
