

From the Pastor

Pam and I are so grateful for the privilege of enjoying this Christmas season with you, our church family. We loved the Kid's program last week, and have been looking forward today's program led by our brand new Sanctuary Players. If any of you aspire to have acting skills to utilize in Theater for God's glory, then be sure to sign up with Pastor Tony Handy right after the service as we have big plans for the Sanctuary Players in 2022!

Speaking of Pastor Tony, what a gift Tony & Kim Handy have been to our Fellowship. Isn't it tremendous when people roll up their sleeves and utilize the God given talents and gifts He has given to glorify His Name? We have 2 Sunday Productions, 2 'Laugh it Up' comedy evangelism evenings, and a dream coming true for me - ever since I've been your Pastor, I've had a desire to put on a Dinner Theater here at the church, and it looks like that will happen in March!

Let's be praying, I really sense that the time is now for us to get the harvest in. Thank you for praying and then inviting your not-yet-Christian family, friends, neighbors and co-workers, especially to all of our evangelistic outreaches, not to mention that the Gospel is being preached and the altar call given every Sunday.

What did Jesus say in Samaria, "the harvest is white." Still to this day, the Samaritans wear white as much as they can. I believe Jesus was saying that the harvest is right in front of us and the time is now. We have an incredible group of intercessors who meet regularly to fast and pray and clear the heavens asking Jesus for true signs and wonders, miracles and healings, to follow His believers. Be on the lookout for your opportunity to pray for the sick and see them recover.

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
