

From the Pastor

Ok, how many of you are wearing something new you received for Christmas? All I can say is that you all look marvelous! And now how about our First World issues - the mad dash back to the stores to return the stuff that didn't fit or that you didn't want (or can't find a way to regift). Lord, help us through that maze...

Now on to more important things. Today Pastor Mike will be challenging us to enter the New Year with a renewed vision and focus on the things that really matter. Pam and I are so sanctified proud of Mike & Marjorie, two young people who were in our Youth group back in California. I had no idea when I asked Mike to come and be on our Staff back in the mid-90's what a tremendous Pastor he would become.

Mike is one of the pure gifts God gave us here at Trinity Life Center. So many times he could have taken over as the Lead Pastor somewhere but he chose to stay here and bless us. I don't think I can fully express what a source of inspiration he has been in my life. I taught him how to do weddings and funerals, and he's so gifted at it that he is now requested more than I am. That makes my heart leap for joy!

He came here as our Youth Pastor, transitioned into Associate Pastor, and when the need arose, he jumped in with both feet to become one of the finest Children's Pastors on the planet. Please go to our website to see all the great things he has accomplished (view his incredible kid's videos). Mike is diligent, he's a hard worker, he's been faithful and I could not ever recommend anyone higher to take our pulpit today.

Thank you for giving him your full attention. Please be reverent and limit the amount of moving around during the sermon. I rarely say anything about it but it really is distracting for the speaker when there is a lot of movement. Of course, we know there are emergencies and insinuating circumstances, but please be still and allow his message to penetrate deeply into your heart.

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
