

From the Pastor

Job, Noah, Joseph, Daniel (and his 3 friends) - JESUS. These are the men in the Bible that lived, as far as we know, totally above reproach. Of course, in the book of Job we realize that God can look deeply into our motives and our attitudes and find us all wanting, well, everyone except Jesus!

We move today to explore the Book of Daniel. Just like all the other books in the Bible, this book is about Jesus. It's about the miracles Jesus brought about for Daniel, Hannaniah, Mishael, and Azariah. It's about Jesus in the end times, stuff that Jesus told Daniel about that has already happened, and stuff that will soon happen. Daniel really is a fascinating Book!

The title of today's message should really be called "Christ the Stone." I wanted to call it "Get Stoned" but that's pushing the envelope a little too far. I ended up going for "A Life Without Compromise" because I think, even though the subject of this Book is Jesus, all of us could use a little more motivation to stop compromising, especially in our culture today.

It's very easy to compromise these days, to slowly drift along - justifying, rationalizing and minimizing. Daniel never did these things, and hopefully we will all benefit from the challenge to live an uncompromised life in a world that truly now calls right wrong and wrong right.

When a Dad is placed on the terrorist list and the FBI is called in, simply because he went to defend his daughter who was raped in a Virginia school, right has become wrong. When a male California inmate claims he is now a woman, and he is moved to the women's correctional facility, and impregnates a female inmate, right has become wrong.

I could go on and on, but we Christ followers can and will make a difference when we choose to live the uncompromised life.

Blessings,

Pastor Randy
