

From the Pastor

Good morning, everyone, and happy Super Bowl Sunday. It is good to have everyone in God's House this morning. Many of you are representing with your team jerseys. May the best team win!.

I wish I was with you today. I am in Tennessee at a very special conference, and I will share some wonderful things with you next week. I have two very special guests today I would like you to open up your heart to. 1st is Pastor Troy Martinez, a dear friend of mine and we call him the General. When the Governor, the Mayor, or the Sheriff are going through a crisis, they call him. He has the ability to mobilize many pastors to instantly respond to the crisis. How wonderful it is that the local government reaches out to the church for help? Troy is also the founder of Dads in Schools right here in Las Vegas. You know what a difference that is making and we are an active part of that.

Troy has brought a very special friend with him this morning, Roman Gabriel. He is the son of the famous Rams quarterback, Roman Gabriel. Roman himself was also a quarterback in the NFL and he has an amazing ministry called Sold Out Youth Ministries. They are reaching thousands of young people on high school and college campuses with a positive message that they can reach their God-given potential without the use of drugs or alcohol; equipping the next generation to lead the way. One of Roman's key focuses is to bring awareness of our fentanyl crisis in America today. It is killing people everyday and many of them are our young people, so be in prayer for this ministry today.

He is a firehouse preacher, and he has a fantastic presentation and a wonderful word for us today. Open up your hearts today. I'll see you next week. God bless you.

Blessings,

Pastor Randy
