

From the Pastor

It's so great to have our children performing their Easter Presentation in today's service. There's always something special to remember, like when the little girl dressed as the Christmas Star had to go use the facilities right in the middle of the play last year—Priceless!

Luke presents the other side of the double-edged sword while sharing the story of the Triumphal Entry. He's the only Gospel writer who records Jesus weeping over Jerusalem, because the people of Israel weren't ready for the King's visitation.

If one is prepared for the King of the Kingdom to come, then they will experience the most incredible blessings. If not, then they will have to face judgment. When the religious leaders demanded that Jesus shut the mouths of the disciples praising Him during The Triumphal Entry, He rightly predicted that the rocks will be crying out.

In 70 A.D., the judgment fell on the very people who were unprepared for the King's visitation as the Romans ransacked all the cities and villages of Israel. In Jerusalem, they burned the Temple whose roof was covered in solid gold. The gold melted and ran down through the cracks between the stones, so those greedy little Italian boys removed the stones one by one to retrieve the gold.

Thus, the rocks cried out in judgment as our Lord had prophesied. When the King visits, He brings with Him either blessing or judgment, depending on whether or not His people have prepared for His arrival. Friends, the King will soon arrive. We call it the Second Coming. Will you be ready to be blessed by His arrival?

More will be revealed,

Randy & Pam
