

From the Pastor

Doesn't that sound delightful, to have been able to take a Sunday afternoon stroll with Jesus? Here's what I believe after all of this week's research: that Cleopas was the brother of Joseph who was the husband of Mary. John 19:25 records that Mary's sister, wife of Cleopas, stood beside her while Jesus hung on the Cross.

This would actually make her Mary's sister-in-law! And that means that Cleopas was actually Uncle Cleopas to Jesus. So on the road to Emmaus, Jesus catches up and begins to discuss matters with His Uncle Cleopas and Aunt Mary. Most people believe it was two men walking on the road to Emmaus, but why would Cleopas leave his wife in Jerusalem, unless of course she wanted to stay by her sister-in-law's side for a few more days.

I love trying to connect all the dots in the Bible, like the fact that Ahithophel, King David's great and very wise advisor, was actually Bathsheba's grandfather, and that's why he turned his back on David and began to advise Absalom, David's son who staged a coup. Ahithophel had to be so upset after what David did to his granddaughter.

Anyway, back to the Emmaus Road, and let's just say this was Uncle Cleopas & Aunt Mary. Neither of them actually saw the Risen Savior before they left to go back to the suburbs, a 7 mile walk from Jerusalem. I'm assuming they were all in great shape so the walk probably took 2 and a half hours. Imagine hearing the greatest Scriptural overview about the Messiah straight from the lips of the recently Risen Messiah!

Watch how much fun Jesus had by concealing His identity from these family members until He revealed Himself by breaking bread. Just imagine their astonishment and overwhelming joy as they jumped up and made the return trip to Jerusalem in record time!

I always approach Resurrection Sunday with deep wonder. The range of emotions in the lives of all who were close to Jesus had to be astonishing. But all of them lived out the rest of their lives completely devoted and never again doubting that Jesus was and is who He said He was, the Son of the Living God Who came to take away the sins of the world!

He is Risen! He is risen indeed!
