From the Pastor

Today I want to invite you to take off your shoes during the sermon. We will be standing on Holy Ground. One of the all-time greatest passages of Scripture is our text for today. Isaac asks his Dad, Abraham—"Where is the Lamb?"

I have some questions I would like to ask Isaac. It is pretty well documented that Isaac is about 16 years old when he and Abraham took off for Mt. Moriah. This wasn't your typical father-son fishing trip. Abraham has every intention of sacrificing his son, his only begotten son!

I have often said, tongue-in-cheek, that Isaac couldn't have been a teenager at the time...because it wouldn't have been much of a sacrifice! They say dogs prepare you for having babies the way cats prepare you for having a teenager. They rarely listen, they talk back and they have a real hard time respecting your wishes. Nope, no sacrifice there!

But if I could, I would like to ask Isaac how he so willingly carried the wood up that mountain, knowing that he was the lamb. He was going to be the sacrifice! But like Jesus, who carried His Cross without any whining or complaining (there's no whining in cross carrying!), Isaac opened not his mouth.

Another question I have for Isaac, and another reason why it's hard to believe he was a teenager: "How could you possibly let that old man (Abraham was 116 years old) tie you to that altar? This is where the ground gets really holy, really sacred. Let's approach the altar today with extreme reverence.

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
