

From the Pastor

Good morning!

Relentless is honored to present in service today. March 16th marked our ministry's 8th year anniversary. We are thankful for a safe space to gather each week and grow together. Thank you to the leadership of Trinity Life Center for the vision and mission to raise up a community of believers who are prayerfully committed to seek the kingdom of God and grow into a healthy community.

Relentless was created because our Senior Pastors and Board wanted to address a gap in ministry. As our children age out of Kids Zone and Ignite Youth, have graduated from high school and begin their college and/or workforce journey, they need a safe space to continue growing in Christ. We all need community, and that is what Relentless is. At Relentless, you belong. You belong with your questions and mishaps and successes and all the in-betweens.

We are so grateful to serve our church body by facilitating this service. If you're looking for a space to belong, we meet every Wednesday from 6:30 PM - 8:00 PM for worship, Bible study, prayer, and encouragement. If you are over 18 & looking for a place to get plugged in, you're welcome to join us.

We want to thank you for praying and supporting this ministry. Without you there would not be a Relentless. Our leaders are committed to creating a space for you to belong so we can live, laugh, learn, and grow together.

This morning we are going to explore Psalm 23 where we rest on The Good Shepherd's Providential Care, The Good Shepherd's Protection, and The Good Shepherd's Promises.

With love,

Pastor Oretta Andrews
