

From the Pastor

This is so amazing to me still, after all these years. I want to follow the Man who has overcome death. Only One Person, EVER, in all the history of the world, has proven that He has power over death, and that's Jesus! I love it that today's Scripture text says (OG) that He is the "Firstborn out of the dead" because this indicates that there will be others.

Did you hear that? THERE WILL BE OTHERS! Would you like to be one of those others? Then place your faith in Jesus, and He, through His unbelievable power, will raise you from the dead into His everlasting Kingdom filled with joy, peace, and stuff none of us have ever even imagined because well over half of what awaits us has never been told.

Back when I was obtaining my degree in Biblical studies at Vanguard University, one of my professors was Ronald E. Wright. Among other things, he taught a class called Prison Epistles, which was designed to help us learn all about Galatians, Ephesians, Philipians and Colossians.

He started the class by taking us to today's passage, Colossians 1: 9-23. And guess what? We never left looking at this incredible passage! It was just too deep, and too rich, so we simply stayed with it and never left. In verse 10, Professor Wright said that there were 3 words that were only found used together in this one place.

No where else in Scripture were these 3 words used together. So the translators had to go out to secular writings of that time, to be able to put these 3 words in context. They were only found when lovers would sign off in their love letters. They would say, "Unto all pleasing," meaning that I will live the rest of my life to please you, my love.

I want to live my life pleasing Him. Don't you?

Randy & Pam
