

From the Pastor

I was looking for Andy, Barney, Opie and Aunt Bee last week. I thought I was in Mayberry, USA. I went to Boulder City and they were having a parade for all the Boulder City High School sports teams.

I think it was for Homecoming. It was so delightful! The whole town turned out it would seem. I especially loved that our waitress excused herself from our table in time to run out and cheer for some of her younger friends who were passing by. I was captured by the sheer joy of the event.

Our Bible text today states that it is already a done deal. Verse 15 in the OG says that Jesus will 'make an example' of all His enemies. The verb is written in past tense, which means that, even though it has yet to happen, there's absolutely no way anyone or anything could possibly stop it from happening.

So get this picture in your head. One day, Jesus will march along the golden street in heaven and lead us in a triumphal parade over the forces of evil and darkness because we are "in Him." Immediately following Him will be you and me, the perfected, unstained Bride of Christ. Then behind us will be all the conquered demons, completely stripped of their evil powers, and the angels will be on the side of the road cheering us on.

Then Jesus will lead us into the Heavenly Temple and present us to His Father, and we will be invited into our Heavenly reward. O man, what a day that will be! I'm so grateful to know that our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ, has everything under control. I can breathe deeply knowing that He's completely in charge of it all.

Blessings,
Randy & Pam
