

From the Pastor

Good morning , Pastor Mike here and I am very happy to be sharing with you this morning about a thought I had a few weeks back.

The thought was, as Christians what keeps us encouraged in this ever changing world that we live in is knowing that no matter what plays out today or tomorrow our future is clear.

Our final destination is bright; it is heaven. There is a event that we as Christians may see in our life time which the church calls the “Blessed Hope.” That is the return of Christ. In other words, it is the “rapture”, also referred to in the Bible as being caught up or a snatching up. (1 Thessalonians 4:17) I will bring more understanding to this this morning.

The question I have for us this morning is, what are we doing in the waiting? We’ve accepted Christ, we have our ticket to Heaven, and as 2 Cor 4:7 says, “we have this treasure in clay jars.” But, my thought is, we have plenty of wonderful work to do, so let’s consider where to start.

With that, my title today is, “May Jesus find you working hard and staying humble.” So, sit back, take it in (don’t fall asleep) and lets see what the Lord may speak to you today.

Blessings Pastor Mike!
