FROM THE PASTOR

I would like to see an entire overhaul on the Thanksgiving Holiday. Just ask Pastor Daniel. Christmas is awesome and I love the purity and holiness of it. I still love the wonder in the eyes of a child, and try to experience that myself every year.

But Christmas has so encroached upon Thanksgiving that I believe it has lost its purpose, charm and meaning. If you could ask Thanksgiving how it feels, I believe it would tell you it feels like chopped liver.

September is now the month when the stores begin to decorate for the Christmas holiday. It's as if Thanksgiving has become an afterthought. Pastor Daniel says that we should cease from Christmas decorations until after the Thanksgiving festivities. He might be on to something.

Here are some ideas to help us recapture the wonder of Thanksgiving:

- ◆ Spend one solid hour giving thanks this coming Thursday. If alone, write down all the things you are thankful for. If with others, go around the room telling each other what you are thankful for, including why you are grateful for them...and yourself!
- ◆ Don't decorate for Christmas until after Thanksgiving (talk to Pastor Daniel).
- ◆ Spend some more time in gratitude BEFORE you start Black Friday shopping.
- ◆ Slow down, slow down, slow down...REST.
- ◆ Grasp this Thanksgiving Holiday with all your might, and make it meaningful!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
