PASTOR RANDY GREER
"GOD'S FINAL REVELATION"
HEBREWS CHAPTER 1

FROM THE PASTOR

HAPPY NEW YEAR, Everybody! We are starting this New Year of 2025 by taking a deeper dive into the Book of Hebrews. So, besides the fact that men should make the coffee until Easter (he brews), ☺ we begin by looking at God's Final Revelation, His Son, Jesus Christ.

God spoke to us throughout the generations through His prophets, but NOW, He speaks to us through His Son, Who is the brightness of His glory, and the express image of His Person. I would just like to say to any prophet who has come along in the last 2,000 years and brought any other revelation than this one talked about in Hebrews chapter 1, we have no need of any further revelation because God Himself has been completely revealed to us through our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

We will be looking at Jesus—the shining forth from God, the very essence of God and the substance of God. Jesus is the very Person of God. He is the exact representation of God's essence. He is the Eternal Essence, the Eternal Spirit, the precise copy, the exact image, the exact reproduction of God. He is not just a sketch of God, like a shadow revealed in the Old Testament. No, Jesus is the completed picture, the full revelation of God.

He is the personal nature of God Himself manifested in human nature. Does it not boggle your mind that all of God in the fullness of His nature was bound up inside the Baby Boy we just celebrated at Christmas? There's so much to think about, so much to grasp about the One Who radiates the brightness of the glory of God. "Father, please help us to discover a deeper grasp of Who You are in Jesus!"

Blessings,
Randy & Pam
