

FROM THE PASTOR

Can you feel joy? Can you taste it? Will it be there when happiness has fled the scene? The greatest joy ever known to mankind is expressed in today's text, when the Good News was announced about the birth of our Savior. This changed everything!

What I love about joy is that it is a deep down contentment that has the ability to persist even in the midst of darkest despair. According to John 16:22 in the NLT, Jesus said "no one can rob you of that joy." O, you mean THAT joy. Yes, that joy! The kind that stays with you in the hospital when your children have been in a terrible accident (ask Ben & Rebecca Litvinoff), when the one you love so deeply breathes her last breath (ask Harold Hammond).

Joy is the song of the Redeemed. Joy is so much the fabric of the believer's life that you could rend the garment but not separate us from our joy. It's one of the gifts Jesus gave to us. Do not allow the enemy to steal your joy.

1 John 3:1 says in the OG, "Behold, what foreign kind of love is this..." Up until this time, several had perhaps given their life in place of someone they loved dearly, but no one had ever given their life for a bitter enemy. And this is where you and I come in. We were His bitter enemy when we were trapped in our sinful ways! And yet Romans 5:8 says, "While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

If that doesn't make you happy, better yet, if that doesn't flood your soul with joy, then you have yet to grasp the deep love God has for you. Because when you taste and see just how good our God really is, then you will be filled and overflowing with His hope, His peace, and most especially, His joy.

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
