FROM THE PASTOR

This Wednesday marks the 80th Anniversary of the martyrdom of Pastor Dietrich Bonhoeffer. He was the Pastor who led the resistance movement against the Nazis and Adolf Hitler. In fact, after much agonizing prayer and a deep study in God's Word, he correctly came to the conclusion that it would be best to end Hitler's life, so he signed off on an attempt to blow Hitler up with a bomb.

It was discovered that, even though he wasn't actually there, his influence led to this attempt, and so just one day short of one month before Germany surrendered, he was executed on the gallows at Flossenberg Concentration Camp. He was transferred to the camp the day before, where the story is told that he preached his final sermon in the truck on his way there.

We have no record of what he said that day, but it was probably along the lines of what he wrote in his book, 'The Cost of Discipleship', where he said that "Grace is free but it's not cheap. When Christ bids a man to come and follow Him, He bids him to come and die." He also wrote that "cheap grace is the preaching of forgiveness without requiring repentance...Cheap grace is grace without discipleship, grace without the Cross, grace without Jesus Christ, living and incarnate...Costly grace...is costly because it calls on us to follow, and it is grace because it calls us to imitate Jesus Christ. It is costly because it costs a man his life! Above all, it is costly because it cost God the life of His Son."

A very deep and sobering question we need to ask ourselves is whether or not we would be willing to die because of our faith in Christ. Would you? If persecution ever comes to the shores of America, will you willingly lay down your life for Him? I guess the best answer to that question is whether or not we are genuinely "Living" for Him now!

Blessings,

Randy & Pam
