

FROM THE PASTOR

Good morning, everyone. How wonderful it is to have you in God's house today. Pastor Randy shared with us last week that over the next three months, he will be taking a break from the pulpit. This will let him get some much, much needed rest and refreshing. He will still be here with us, as he is today, but he's allowing the staff to have an opportunity to break the bread of life and bring a message to you. How wonderful and generous of Pastor Randy to share the pulpit. Very few pastors would do so.

We are all looking forward to our time of sharing with this wonderful congregation. I have the privilege of being the first one up. My message today is found in Psalm 73. This psalm of Asaph is a wonderful psalm of warning and encouragement in these last days that we live in. The enemy has one goal and that is to rob you of the hope that you have in Jesus and in his soon return, discouraging us as we walk with the Lord, and working daily to get us to give up.

I personally believe that discouragement is the number one cause of most of our problems in our personal life, in our marriage, in our home, at work, and in our church. In this psalm we see that Asaph, like us, faces the same challenges and problems of living for the Lord daily. He shows us the remedy for these problems, and it's simply this to go to church, to go to the temple, to lift up holy hands, to give Him praise, to hear His word, and to have the fellowship of the saints.

As we see the day approaching, the Bible says not to forsake the assembling of yourselves together as some of you have. The scriptures say, "that which has been hidden in ages past, has been revealed unto us in these last days and that God's manifold wisdom is the church". The church is made up of you, and me. Jesus loves the church. He calls us his bride, and He's returning for us very soon. The scriptures are so relevant for the day. They transcend time and culture. Romans 15:4 says that everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the scriptures, we might have hope.

Sara and I love this church with all of our hearts, and we love all you wonderful folks who have meant so much to us over the years. We owe so much to this church; it has been everything to us. Open up your heart to God's word today.

Until he comes, Vic.
