

FROM THE PASTOR

May the 4th be with you! We are privileged to have our great friend, Barry Perez, back in our pulpit today. Something supernatural always happens when he's here with us, but what I love the most about Barry is how calm he is while God is healing and restoring us.

I guess my favorite story is about the man, a good friend of mine, whose life was so deeply impacted in one of Barry's meetings that he is now pastoring a wonderful church here in our city! It was the kind of transformation that only God could do.

Barry will be speaking in the Spanish Church later today, and then we will have combined, translated meetings for the next 3 days. We were scheduled to put up a tent at Charleston & Maryland, but there's just too much construction work going on in that vicinity. So we thought deeply about placing the tent in our back parking lot, until it became evident that the best thing to do is to simply meet in our own wonderful Sanctuary.

So please, tell your friends who are sick to come and be prayed over. Tell your Spanish speaking friends that the services will be translated. And here's the schedule:

Monday, Tuesday & Wednesday Services @ 10:30 am and 6 pm. On Wednesday, we will combine all of our activities into the Sanctuary and be a church family for our final meeting. Come expecting God to do what only God can do!

Blessings,

Pastor Randy
