

PASTOR RANDY GREER
“BEHOLD THE LAMB OF GOD!”
JOHN 1:29

FROM THE PASTOR

And so, once again, we find ourselves at the beginning of Passion Week. This is undoubtedly the greatest week in History. It began with everyone in Israel going out to inspect the lambs in their flocks. For 4 days, they would look very closely for any blemish of any kind. Only an unblemished lamb would suffice for the Passover Seder Meal.

It was also on this day that God chose His Lamb. We call it the Triumphant Entry, when indeed it was our Heavenly Father choosing His spotless Lamb. From Sunday until Wednesday, the religious leaders of Israel came and ‘inspected Jesus,’ throwing questions at Him left and right. Pilate said it best. “I find no fault in Him.” Like the unblemished Passover lamb, Jesus was found faultless.

Now let’s fast forward to Friday. All the lambs had been chosen and now presented to the Temple Priests. On this day, Jesus was nailed to the Crucifixion Tree, where He bore the entire weight of human sin. At precisely 3 pm, when all the lambs were slaughtered and poured out their blood—dying as substitutes for the people, Jesus, the chosen Lamb of God, died as an atoning sacrifice for all humanity.

All of this precision was designed to prepare us to recognize the True Lamb when He came. As you make this incredible recognition, now you can join John in proclaiming, “Behold the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sins of the world!

Blessings,
 Pastor Randy & Pam
