

PASTOR RANDY GREER
"YOUR LIFE, YOUR LEGACY"
GENESIS 29:15-35

FROM THE PASTOR

So yes, I've been thinking a lot about Legacy, and wondering what we have achieved in our 36 years of being a Pastor at Trinity Life Center. But an even deeper concern for me is how you answer that question, not about me but about you. What legacy are you leaving?

Today we look into the story of one of the more obscure characters in the Bible, Leah, who was forced to marry Jacob. Apparently, she loved him very much, but quickly found that her love wasn't being reciprocated early on in the marriage, mainly due to her bratty beauty Queen little sister who had captivated Jacob's full attention ever since the moment he laid eyes on her.

Leah soon realized that her hopes of a happy marriage were going to have to take a back seat to her relationship with the Lord, evidenced by the way she named her first 4 sons. She called son #1 "Behold a son!" thinking this would help her gain her husband's love and attention. #2 she named "Heard," because she thought the Lord had heard that she was unloved. #3 she named "Attached," hoping that now Jacob would become attached to her after giving him 3 strapping boy heirs.

Finally, she realized she simply had to pin her entire trust in the Lord, and names boy #4 "Praise" as in, now I will Praise the Lord. Are you aware that at least 28 of the 66 books of the Bible were written by her descendants, and that all the principal players in the Christmas story are her children, from her lineage, including Jesus our Messiah? Talk about legacy! All this from someone who had difficulty believing that she had real value.

Think about it,

Pastor Randy & Pam
